

NO SLIGHT ON HOUSE MEANT—MARSHALL

F. S. Attorney Explains His Criticism Only Applied to Some Members.

LETTER DOESN'T APPEASE

WASHINGTON, March 19.—United States Attorney H. Snowden Marshall of New York has written a letter to Representative Webb, chairman of the House Judiciary Committee, explaining the charges of unfairness he made two weeks ago in a letter written to the chairman of the sub-committee now investigating the affairs of his office under authority of the Buchanan impeachment resolution.

Mr. Marshall's second letter is in the nature of an apology, but as such it does not go far enough to remove entirely the possibility that he may be summoned before the bar of the House for contempt.

In it he says he did not intend to criticize all members of the Judiciary Committee, nor of the House, but that he evidently does not include in this number, it is said, Representative Cannon of Virginia, Nelson, Wisconsin, and Gard of Ohio, the three members of the sub-committee whom he charges with unfairness in conducting the investigation.

Because of its limitations, the apology leaves the Judiciary Committee in something of a predicament. The sub-committee approved the committee itself, and technically any charges made against it apply to the Judiciary Committee.

Not Appeared by Letter.
The sub-committee, although disposed to view the incident with judicial impartiality, has been, it is said, far from appeased by Mr. Marshall's letter, explaining that the charges do not apply to the House or all the members of the Judiciary Committee.

Both of Mr. Marshall's letters, together with his conduct toward the investigating committee in New York, will be considered by the full Judiciary Committee when it meets on Tuesday. At that time the whole matter will be formally reported to the full committee, and it will take up the question whether Mr. Marshall shall be called on for an explanation more satisfactory than the one he has voluntarily made, or whether harsher measures shall be taken.

Representative Webb refused tonight to make public Mr. Marshall's second letter. It is not regarded, however, as a withdrawal of the criticism of the investigating committee.

The District Attorney, it is understood, makes the explanation that he does not desire to have his letter of criticism construed as asserting that the House had no authority to make an investigation of the impeachment charges brought against him by Representative Buchanan of Illinois. Nor does he desire to be understood as making the charge that the House acted in bad faith in ordering the investigation.

No Objection to Inquiry.
He takes the attitude, it was said, that no objection can be made to an investigation, and is quite willing that it should be made, but that he has left on the committee is that he does not like the way it is being done by the sub-committee.

In his original letter to the chairman of the investigating committee, Representative Carlin, Mr. Marshall implied that the inquiry was ordered by the House to members of the committee and there were pro-Buchanan influences behind it, and that the sub-committee called rogues and blackguards to testify regarding the conduct of the District Attorney's office.

This letter stirred an considerable resentment in the House generally, and many members were more or less provoked by the demands that the Judiciary Committee take cognizance of what they considered an affront to the members of the investigating committee.

It was suggested at the time that Mr. Marshall could be brought before the House on a charge of contempt, or that upon the initiative of the Judiciary Committee he could be cited before the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia by the speaker.

There is little doubt that the Judiciary Committee is reluctant to see either course followed, and has expressed the hope that an explanation would satisfy all demands.

Now that the explanation has come the Judiciary Committee is somewhat perplexed. Although an explanation was made on the part of the members of the House who took the criticism to themselves, it is now a question of the dignity of the committee, in some respects a more troublesome matter.

Members explain that while they might overlook a reflection on their own conduct, they cannot overlook criticism of a committee of their colleagues. The matter will be threshed out by the Judiciary Committee on Tuesday, and it is expected a decision will be reached then.

When the above dispatch from Washington was read to the United States District Attorney last night Mr. Marshall said he stated in his letter to Mr. Webb that he had nothing whatever to apologize for or retract in regard to the criticism contained in his letter to Mr. Carlin, dated March 5, concerning the methods adopted by the sub-committee in New York.

SEES PROGRESSIVE NOMINEE.

Senator Clapp Thinks G. O. P. Will Pick Max Moore as Support.

PHILADELPHIA, March 19.—United States Senator Max Moore of Minnesota believes the Republican national convention in Chicago will name a Presidential candidate and in out of the party.

"I am rather inclined to think," Senator Clapp here today, "that the Republican convention will nominate some one who will be generally acceptable to the progressive elements of the Republican party and most likely to those who are distinctly anti-Progressive. It is impossible now to forecast who this man will be, but it looks now as if the most likely man to unite these elements will be G. O. Roosevelt, United States Senator Cummins, or perhaps James Hughes."

"I have no doubt that the platform will be one which any of these men can consistently run."

STATEN ISLAND NOTES.

William G. Wilson, President of the Board of Education, is the author of a recent editorial in the Staten Island Free Press, in which he criticizes the candidates for county committee, which seeks to overthrow the regular organization now in the hands of Justice Thomas C. Brown, County Judge, Harry Terman and ex-Sheriff O'Grady.

R. Stewart Taylor has been elected president of the Clinton Boat Club, Staten Island, one of the remaining rowing organizations. Those who will be competing in the coming year are A. J. Thompson, vice president, J. J. Thompson, secretary, John A. Union, treasurer, John W. Carter, first lieutenant, Herbert Driskill, second lieutenant, and Walter J. Taylor, third lieutenant. Thomas A. Salmon, A. S. Lyman, A. Lincoln Kingston and W. J. Bradford, directors.

ROOSEVELT TO RUN, IS TIP FROM PERKINS TO MOOSE

Colonel Is Expected to Make a Statement After His Return This Week—The Hughes Sentiment
Is Still Growing.

WASHINGTON, March 19.—Chief interest in national politics from the Washington viewpoint centres in the return of Col. Roosevelt from the West Indies.

Followers of the Colonel talk as if they intend to give him a rousing reception when he lands in New York next Saturday and that immediately thereafter something will be doing in politics. Word has come direct to the Bull Moose adherents in Washington that Col. Roosevelt will be in the Presidential race this year. They understand that if the Republicans do not nominate him the Progressives will and that he will accept. This word is said to come from George W. Perkins.

With the growing interest in the movement to nominate Justice Hughes, the hope has been indulged by many old line Republicans that the Colonel would be induced to accept the Hughes candidacy and remain out of the race, but that is not the tin the leading Progressives have been looking for. Mr. Perkins, the matter is expected to be cleared up by the return of the Colonel, who, it is understood, will have some developments of the week have done little to clear the situation in the Republican party. The Hughes sentiment seems to be stronger now than it was when Senator Burton said his candidacy is making progress. Senator Cummins, opposed by Henry D. Estabrook, took the delegates of Minnesota. Senator Weeks has the support of the New Hampshire delegates and Charles W. Fairbanks.

Developments of the week have done little to clear the situation in the Republican party. The Hughes sentiment seems to be stronger now than it was when Senator Burton said his candidacy is making progress. Senator Cummins, opposed by Henry D. Estabrook, took the delegates of Minnesota. Senator Weeks has the support of the New Hampshire delegates and Charles W. Fairbanks.

A prominent Republican who traveled through the West and middle West has brought back to Washington a story of remarkable growth in Root sentiment. He believes that if the New York delegates present Mr. Root's name and support him with anything like enthusiasm and unanimity he will be nominated.

Senator Smoot, one of the best informed of the Western Republicans, believes that the nomination lies among three men and that no one beyond these three will be seriously considered. He names Root, Hughes and Roosevelt. Senator Smoot favors Mr. Root.

He believes that sentiment for Hughes is growing rapidly and that if the Justice permits to go on unrestrained it will result in his nomination. Mr. Smoot also sees a contingency under which Roosevelt will be named and says he is ready to support him if he is nominated.

SUFFS IN WHITE WILL PLEAD AT ST. LOUIS FEARS WAR MAY BRING FALL OF DEMOCRACY

Democratic Delegates to Be Surrounded Everywhere by Woman Advocates.

Delegates to the Democratic national convention in St. Louis beginning June 14 will find the scenery interesting, if somewhat gloomy. On all sides of them, in hotel lobbies, on the streets, in the convention hall, wherever they go, they will be surrounded by a ring of women dressed in white gowns, carrying yellow parasols and decked with yellow arm bands, sashes, caps and banners.

It will be a marvellous, speechless parade in demand of a "Votes for Women" plank in the platform.

As seen by the conscientious Democratic delegate feels his soul wither under the reproachful looks of the women he will be made the mark for a speech.

Even Carrie Chapman Catt, president of the National American Woman Suffrage Association, started yesterday for Columbus, Ohio, and for Detroit, Milwaukee, Little Rock and Louisville, where she will confer with other suffrage leaders about the forthcoming demonstration.

Selected to be at the convention delegations of women from every State, and each State delegation of women will be larger than that State's delegation to the convention. According to the plan, platforms will be erected in the streets from which suffrage speeches will be made regularly during the convention.

Even the election of hotel accommodations has not troubled the women, although the Democrats have reserved all the space in the best hotels. "Gentlemen first," say the ladies, and content themselves with what they can get.

The Republican convention will not be planned for the suffragists have been sighted to have a large national parade in Chicago during convention week.

GIRL, MEMORY GONE, WANDERS

Able at Last to Tell Name, but Mind Is Still Clouded.

Twenty-two-year-old Anna Gioren, a stenographer who lives at 225 Eighth avenue, Brooklyn, is in Bellevue Hospital, struggling to recover her memory. Dr. Markes of the Polytechnic Hospital, who has had charge of the girl since she was found wandering in a daze in front of the Madison apartment house, says she is suffering from amnesia, probably the effect of a blow, which a bruise over her eye leads the physician to believe she received.

Yesterday afternoon the girl went up to Policeman Kavanaugh and said, "Pardon, please tell me who I am." She was taken to the West Sixty-eighth street station, then to the Polytechnic Hospital, and later to Bellevue. Late last night the girl's memory seemed to return to her in some measure, for she told her closest friend was a Mrs. Myers, who lived in the Madison apartment house. It was said last night that Mrs. Myers had not lived there for three or four years.

STAMPS BRYAN A DEMOCRAT.

Nebraska Secretary of State Rules
His Name Stays on Ballot.

LINCOLN, Neb., March 19.—William J. Bryan has officially been declared a Democrat by the Nebraska Secretary of State. A protest had been sent to Paul W. R. Whitely of Omaha against the name of Bryan being entered on the Nebraska primary ballot for delegate at large to the Democratic national convention at St. Louis. He declared that Bryan had broken faith with the Democrats at the Baltimore convention and in other ways violated Democratic principles.

Secretary Paul rules that more than 1,000 Democrats signed a petition for Bryan and as only one protest had been made Bryan is a Democrat and would remain so until the courts decided otherwise.
